

Friday 13th of September
Time
7:00pm	Glen O'Brien: The Awakening of Maria in Fritz Lang's Metropolis
7:30pm	Caleb Smith: Vast, Cool and Unsympathetic: The Church and the World's First Tale of Robot Overlords
8:00pm	Gordon Preece: AI Armageddon for jobs? Or Paradise of the Precariat? The Meaning of Artificial Intelligence for Human Vocation
8:45pm	Light Refreshments
9:15pm	Members Meeting (30 minutes)
Saturday 14th of September
9:00am	John Capper: Ambiguous Peace: Szymanowski and Wesley in dialogue with King Roger II of Sicily
9:30am	Jonathan Case: Caught Between the Postmodern and the Modern: Why Are Christians Reluctant to Embrace the Transhumanist Movement? (NY)
10:15am	Morning Tea
10:45am	Caleb Stewart: Posthuman metaphysics and Darwinism: A therapeutic response
11:30pm	Stephen Garner: Angels and Robots: The religious dimensions of transhumanist popular culture (New Zealand)
12:15pm	Lunch
1:15pm	Ian Packer: Christian Bioethics, the Fear of Death, and the Transhuman Future
2:00pm	Grenville Kent: Sexbots, love and marriage: a meeting of minds?
2:45pm	Thomas Oord: Can Machines Love? (recorded video)
3:30pm	Afternoon Tea
4:00pm	Pam Reed: Intelligent Robots, Sentient Animals and Humans Living with Dementia: the incompatibility of Peter Singer's ethics and Christianity in relation to Personhood
4:45pm	David Allen: A Cosmic Theology Worthy of a Cosmic God – Early Explorations of a Post-Human Theology Previewed by Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Nikolai Fedorov (South Africa)
5:30pm	David Wilson: The Dehumanisation of a Post-Human Future
6:15pm	Day concludes/dinner on your own
Sunday 15th of September
9:00am	Brian Edgar: Biotechnology, Wesley and the Gospel
9:45am	John McDowell: Humanising Bodies of Tomorrow: Reel Hope and Theology's Social Critique
10:30am	Morning Tea
11:00am	Worship Service
12:00pm	Close of Conference