

Australian Women in Religion

The 1000 Women in Religion Project is working to add biographies to Wikipedia, where over 80% of biographical entries are currently about men.

Together our goal is to create 100 new Wikipedia entries for Australian women in religion in 2020, in addition to updating and improving already-published articles.

An all-day edit-a-thon will be held at Catholic Theological College on Friday 24 April 2020.

Come along and observe, do research, or offer support, and work alongside others who will be creating and editing Wikipedia pages.
