

Intergenerational Ministry Agent

St Leonard's Uniting Church - Brighton Beach

Expressions of interest are invited for a 0.8 fte ministry placement at St. Leonard's Uniting Church in the Victorian bayside suburb of Brighton Beach to commence at the beginning of 2022 for 3 years.

St. Leonards is a faith community made up of people of a variety of ages and life stages with two weekly worship services and a monthly Messy Church. We are seeking an innovative Ministry practitioner, with a strong Christian faith, who is able to:

- Build caring relationships with families involved in the ministry activities of St. Leonard's church.
- Provide pastoral support to parents and young people.
- Attend and creatively contribute to the enhancement of worship services in a way that seeks to enrich people's faith, based on understandings of the community's pastoral needs.
- Investigate intergenerational missional opportunities in the local and wider community.

Selection Criteria

We are seeking applicants who demonstrate:

- strong relational skills with an ability to connect positively with families and their children and provide meaningful pastoral care.
- an ability to provide innovative and creative environments that encourage intergenerational participation.
- a strong commitment to the Christian faith with a desire to engage positively with others on matters of faith.
- a strong commitment to intergenerational mission in fulfilling the call of God to the church
- an awareness of the challenges of family life and issues in contemporary society.
- an ability to work collaboratively as well as independently.
- an awareness and ability to implement child safe policies.

For further information and to apply, please contact:

Rev. Sue Withers, Placements Secretary.

Uniting Church Synod of Victoria and Tasmania.

Email: placements.secretary@vic.uca.org.au

Applications close: Friday 28 January 2022