ENGAGE

Graduates engage with diverse views, contexts and traditions.

SERVE

THE CEREMONY of conferring degrees and awarding diplomas and certificates is a time-honoured ritual performed at universities throughout the world. It is the moment when awards are formally made, and is a celebration of the achievements of the graduands.

Graduation ceremonies at the University of Divinity celebrate the academic excellence of our students, honour our collegiate structure and reveal the richness of the many Christian traditions which shape our identity.

The ceremony begins with the procession of the University's academic staff, doctoral graduands, distinguished guests, and members of the University's Council, ending with the University Mace and the Chancellor.

As befits a University of Divinity, the first part of the ceremony includes prayer, song, and a reading from scripture.

The formal graduation commences in the second part of the ceremony, when the Chair of the Academic Board certifies to the Chancellor that all graduands listed in the program, whether present or absent, have completed the requirements of their awards as established by the Council and the Academic Board.

Candidates for coursework awards are then presented to the Chancellor, grouped by Colleges and Schools, followed by candidates for research masters' degrees and doctoral awards.

The guest speaker delivers an address, and, following a final song and prayer, the ceremony concludes with the academic procession, now augmented by the new graduates.

WELCOME.

TONIGHT WE GATHER AT ST PAUL'S CATHEDRAL MELBOURNE, TO WITNESS THE GRADUATION OF 255 STUDENTS.

On behalf of the Council of the University, I am delighted to welcome each graduand to tonight's ceremony. We honour your academic achievements in theology, ministry, education, and professional practice.

It is a particular pleasure tonight to welcome our speaker, Professor Peter Sherlock.

At this ceremony, each of you becomes a member of the alumni community of the University of Divinity. Our alumni are found in every corner of the globe, serving their churches and communities in extraordinary ways. As you join them, I trust that you will draw more on your attributes as a graduate of the University, as you continue to learn, articulate, communicate, engage and serve.

I thank all who have come tonight in support of our graduands, including family, friends, colleagues, and members of the University Council and the staff of its Colleges. Your support is invaluable to our graduands and to the University as a whole as it seeks to address the issues of our contemporary world through critical engagement with Christian theological traditions.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Professor Peter Sherlock is the Foundation Vice-Chancellor of the University of Divinity. Tonight he steps down after 12 years as Vice-Chancellor. In recognition of his service to theological education and the Australian higher education sector, the Council has appointed him Emeritus Professor of the University of Divinity.

Professor Sherlock studied history at the University of Melbourne and the University of Oxford. He was a Commonwealth Scholar at Corpus Christi College, Oxford (1997-2000) and an ARC Postdoctoral Fellow at the University of Melbourne (2004-2008). He joined the University in 2008 serving as Dean of the United Faculty of Theology until his appointment as Vice-Chancellor in 2012. He has led the theology sector in Australia for more than a decade, serving for eight years as Chair of the Council of Deans of Theology and for two years as President of ANZATS.

Professor Sherlock's primary area of research is the cultural history of Renaissance and Reformation Europe, especially cultures of remembering, forgetting, and commemoration. He also publishes widely on gender, religion and theological education. With Daniel Nellor he is author of the forthcoming book Theology Matters, an account of how theology has changed the lives and careers of 11 prominent Australians.

Peter is passionate about equipping people of all faiths and none to think outside the box, to engage critically with the world around them, to bring the ancient wisdom of theological traditions into conversation with contemporary challenges, and to serve the needs of others. He is a member of the Anglican Church of Australia and sings bass in the Choir of St Paul's Cathedral Melbourne.

Guests are asked to switch off mobiles during the ceremony

CHRIST IS MADE THE SURE FOUNDATION

1. Christ is made the sure Foundation,
Christ the Head and Corner stone, chosen of the Lord, and precious, binding all the Church in one,
Holy Sion's help forever,
and her confidence alone.
2. All that dedicated city, dearly loved of God on high,
in exultant jubilation
pours perpetual melody,
God the One in Three adoring in glad hymns eternally.
3. To this temple, where we call thee,
come, O Lord of Hosts, today;
with thy wonted loving-kindness hear thy servants as they pray, and thy fullest benediction shed within its walls always.
4. Here vouchsafe to all thy servants what they ask of thee to gain, what they gain from thee for ever with the blessèd to retain, and hereafter in thy glory
evermore with thee to reign.
5. Laud and honour to the Father, laud and honour to the Son,
laud and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three, and ever One,
consubstantial, co-eternal,
while unending ages run.

*Latin, tr. John Mason Neale (1818-66)
Hymns Ancient and Modern Revised 620*

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Please sing the response after the cantor, then as indicated

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth.

1. O Lord our Governor, how glorious is your name in all the earth!
2. Your majesty above the heavens is yet recounted by the mouths of babes and sucklings.
3. You have founded a strong defense against your adversaries, to quell the enemy and the avenger.
4. When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars which you have set in order,
5. what are we, that you should be mindful of us? what are we, that you should care for us?
6. Yet you have made us little less than gods, and have crowned us with glory and honour.
7. You have given us dominion over your handiwork: and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet,
8. all sheep and oxen, and all the creatures of the field,
9. the birds of the air and the fish of the sea, and everything that moves in the pathways of the great waters.

Response

Response

Antiphon: Geoffrey Cox; Chant: Tone VIII.1

Together in Song 4

NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD

1. Now thank we all our God,
with heart and hands and voices,
who wond'rous things hath done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of live, and still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts
and blessèd peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
in this world and the next.
3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven,
the One eternal God,
whom earth and heav'n adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Kevin Brian Brown

Whitley College

Thesis: Omri in Context: An Israelite King Between History and Theology

Supervisors: Professor Mark Brett and Professor Lawson Younger

The thesis explores the question of how the contextual approach developed by William Hallo illuminates a chosen text against its wider linguistic, cultural, and archaeological background. The case studies examine the depiction of King Omri in 1 Kgs 16:21–28 in the light of extra-biblical traditions concerning the house of Omri.

Jonathan Paul Cornford

Whitley College

Thesis: Christian Witness in the Midst of Capitalism: An Australian Conversation with R. H. Tawney, John Howard Yoder, and Oliver O'Donovan

Supervisors: Reverend Associate Professor Jason Goroncy and Reverend Dr Gordon Preece

What is the vocation of the church in capitalist, post-Christian Australia? This thesis pursues this question by way of a sustained conversation with three quite different North Atlantic thinkers – R.H. Tawney, Oliver O'Donovan, and John Howard Yoder – testing their ideas against the specific missiological conditions of twenty-first century Australia.

Megan Joy du Toit

Morling College

Thesis: Stanley J. Grenz and Evangelicalism: Tensions, Purpose, and Future

Supervisors: Professor David Starling and Reverend Associate Professor Darrell Jackson

This thesis seeks to examine whether Grenz's proposal for a renewed evangelicalism can provide a constructive response to the tensions within evangelicalism. It suggests an adapted version of Grenz's proposal, that evangelicalism is a Church-directed renewing and reforming movement. The movement is called to embrace a gospel-centred, generous orthoholism.

Janet Elizabeth Duke

Whitley College

Thesis: Where Do Words Come From?

Supervisor: Professor Susan Long

This layered accounts autoethnographic thesis explores my journey of transformation from "perfect" active obstetrician to contemplative Quaker spiritual director working from the unknown. As bricoleur, I intuit how words appear, using fragments including written vignettes, music, poetry, art work and stitching a crazy patchwork quilt.

Emily Vaux Fraser

Trinity College Theological School

Thesis: A Christological Examination of the Hymns of Martin Luther, Charles Wesley, and John Keble

Supervisors: Reverend Canon Professor Dorothy Lee AM FAHA and Very Reverend Dr Andreas Loewe FRHistS and Dr Katherine Firth

This thesis explores the Christology expressed by Luther, Wesley and Keble in their hymns and poems. It demonstrates the centrality of Christ in the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter, revealing the writers' nuanced seasonal Christology informed by the key Biblical passages and theological concepts underlying each liturgical season.

Diana Wendy McKinley

Catholic Theological College

Thesis: Give Them Churches

Supervisors: + Reverend Professor Austin Cooper OMI AM and Reverend Dr Max Vodola

The 1836 NSW and 1853 Victorian Church Acts paid subsidies to build churches and minister's dwellings and pay stipends to ministers. Over 1 million pounds sterling was paid by the Victorian government to subsidize the building of over 544 churches. The Church Acts enabled Christianity to be established in the new Colony of Victoria.

Albert Richard Peck

Whitley College

Thesis: All the Rage: A practical Theological study of how local congregations can care for people who experience a tension between faith and habitual patterns of anger

Supervisors: Reverend Associate Professor Frank Rees and Reverend Dr Anne Mallaby

A practical theological study of how local congregations can care for people who experience a tension between faith and habitual patterns of anger. This thesis explores the lives of nine participants from local churches who struggle with habitual patterns with anger.

Jeanette Marie Sullivan

Catholic Theological College

Thesis: Did God not choose the poor? (Jas 2:5): A Preferential Option

Supervisors: Dr Catherine Playoust, Reverend Canon Professor Dorothy Lee AM FAHA and Very Reverend Dr Cameron Forbes

Encapsulated in the question, Did God not choose the poor? (Jas 2:5), an analysis of the Letter of James underscores the development of the theological imperative of the preferential option for the poor in Catholic social teaching from Leo XIII's 1891 encyclical Rerum Novarum to the present day.

Uzoma J. Uzoeshi

Morling College

Thesis: Christian Responses to the Growth of Islam in Igboland, Nigeria, and its Implications for Christian-Muslim Relations in the Region

Supervisors: Reverend Associate Professor Darrell Jackson and Dr Folaranmi T Lateju

This study examined Christian responses to the growth of Islam in Igboland, Nigeria, and its implications for Christian-Muslim relations in the region. The findings showed a gradual growth of Islam and its trajectories among the Igbos, who are autochthonous to southeastern Nigeria and are considered overwhelmingly Christian in population and social culture. Christians responded positively and negatively to its growth and interfaith relations.

Pamela Elizabeth Zweck

Australian Lutheran College

Thesis: Lucas Cranach the Elder, visual theologian, painter, and co-worker with Martin Luther in the Wittenberg Reformation: a theological-rhetorical analysis of his visual art

Supervisors: Emeritus Professor Wendy Mayer, Reverend Dr Mark Worthing and Dr Josephine Laffin

This thesis demonstrates that the sixteenth-century German artist, Lucas Cranach the Elder, can be considered a visual theologian of the Protestant Reformation. It shows, by means of a rhetorical analysis of Cranach's major religious works, that his images on the canvas are indeed rhetorical artefacts that speak, thus matching Martin Luther's rhetorical preaching from the pulpit.
